Attendance Counts! Are you at school every day?

Our Whole School Attendance is 92.1% That is a 0.1% decrease this fortnight. Oh No! Remember that every day is a learning day. We need to keep working together to improve attendance. Be at school every day as it is everyone’s responsibility to focus on attendance and learning. Together, we are aiming for 95% or above. WE CAN DO IT! 😊

Parenting Is Hard, But You’re Not Alone
The Queensland Family and Child Commission has recently launched the Talking Families campaign. The campaign encourages parents or families who are experiencing difficulties to talk to someone and not be reluctant to ask for help. Further information is available at the Talking Families website: http://talkingfamilies.qld.gov.au/

Latest Queensland Parenting Magazine Out Now, Free!
The latest issue of the free Queensland Triple P Tippaper is out now. The theme for this issue is ‘Assertive Discipline’ so there are some great tips on effectively guiding children’s behaviour. Plus real-life Queensland families and stories including the dad who had to overcome his initial panic at the thought of being home alone with a toddler all day; the mum who saw through the social media ‘perfect parent’ hype; and ways to encourage kids to grow and eat healthy food. Look for free copies in your community or read it now online: https://www.triplep-parenting.net.au/qld-uken/blog-and-more/queensland-parent-magazine/issue-5-assertive-discipline/

Inclusive Education
Over 2018, members of our student support team have been working together to review processes for supporting students across our school. We have looked at procedures for identifying students, communicating to parents and caregivers, strategies for prioritising and distributing available resources, ‘best practice’ for implementing support and strategies for monitoring its’ effectiveness. Members of this team include the Guidance Officer, Head of Curriculum, Head of Special Education Services (when available), Speech Language Pathologist (when available), the referring teachers and myself.
Together we form the support team around the students of Tieri State School, working to support the academic, behaviour and social/emotional needs of our students. This team will work in a variety of ways to support the needs of students across our school with teachers and teacher aides now and into the future.

This team focusses on embedding ‘Inclusive Education’ aligned to the Department of Education’s recently released Inclusive Education Policy. This policy outlines the department’s commitment to providing a quality education for all students so that they can access and ‘fully participate in learning, alongside their similar-aged peers, supported by reasonable adjustments and teaching strategies tailored to meet their individual needs. Inclusion is embedded in all aspects of school life, and is supported by culture, policies and every day practices.’

Thank You for Participating in the School Opinion Survey and Other Feedback Opportunities

Recently, we have received a number of positive comments, phone calls and formal and informal feedback from parents, caregivers and the community related to the ‘warm feel’ of the school, the welcoming appearance of the school and the work ethic and achievements of our staff and support for students. I wish to extend my thanks to all those who have provided this feedback to us.

Another way students, staff and our school families provided feedback in relation to their level of satisfaction was via the recent 2018 School Opinion Survey. I would like to say thank you for having your say via this survey. The results of the survey will guide our work moving forward.

Enrol Now for Prep 2019
Parents are encouraged to enrol their children now, if they are eligible to attend Prep in 2019. Information packages and enrolment forms are available from the office for children who wish to commence Prep in 2019 and beyond. If your child turns five by June 30 2019, they are eligible for Prep next year. The table below is a guide to assist families to determine their child’s Prep eligibility.

Strive for Success Virtues – Detachment
Detachment is experiencing your feelings without allowing your feelings to control you. It is choosing how you will act in a situation rather than just reacting. With detachment you are free to do only what you choose to do. Detachment is using thinking and feeling together, so you can make smart choices.
Natural Mathematics – Bridge Through 100
This same strategy that works for bridging through 10 also works for larger numbers where instead of bridging through 10 the bridge is through 100. So for 90 + 40 the bridging process is to add 90 + 10 to make the hundred and then to add the remaining 30 to make 130. Adding 30 to 100 presents no problem to children who have been exposed to friendly numbers.

The Importance of Physical Activity
Physical activity is very important for a child’s development and leads to a healthy and active life. Please encourage your children to participate in physical activity for these reasons:

- healthy growth and development
- maintain a healthy weight
- strong bones and muscles
- improves balance, coordination and strength
- helps to develop gross motor and fine motor skills
- improves concentration and thinking skills
- builds confidence and self-esteem
- relieves stress and promotes relaxation
- develops social skills and makes friends

2018 School Priorities

- School Attendance – Our target is an average student attendance rate of 95% or above
- Reading – Our target is 100% of our students achieving 1 year of reading growth
- Explicit Teaching – Our target is that our school exceeds the national mean in Reading
- Quality Ensured – Whole School Consistent Teaching and Learning through Explicit Instruction

READING FOR PLEASURE
The priority of reading for pleasure is something that, as educators, we are all aware of. The National Curriculum states that “Through reading in particular, pupils have a chance to develop culturally, emotionally, intellectually, socially and spiritually.” The ability to read is a necessity in our society today and, in order to ensure that children can thrive socially, there needs to be a huge emphasis not only on learning how to decode and understand but also on reading for pleasure. The latest research explains that “research has shown how important reading for enjoyment is, not only for reading outcomes but for wider learning.” As educators, we encourage a love of reading whenever we can; children need time daily to read books, and read books that they want to read.

Spending time developing the reading environment - book areas, displays, libraries and outdoor reading areas - can play a significant part in encouraging children to read if it is done well.

There should be a book corner in every primary classroom, plus additional spaces around the school. There is no set way to develop a book area; the only criteria is that it is inviting, attractive, filled with up to date books and, most importantly, it is used. Putting in time and effort to set up a book area is important but it should be set up so that it is used as a central part of daily practice – the books are there to be read.

At Tieri SS teachers have made book corners in their classrooms. This is to encourage the love of reading and support our school focus of READING in 2018.

This term has been extremely busy. We have been on the go. A highlight of the term was book week. As a class we explored some of the short listed books available in the library. From these books we created a display, featuring Koalas. I am proud of the effort 4/5T put into their costumes and artwork. I look forward to exploring books with you next term.

Wow Work

Congratulations to all students who have been selected as Wow Work throughout the semester.

I would like to highlight:

Abbey for her exceptional bookwork expectation.

Jake for his time and effort in creating a story at home.

Jacob for perfecting the arts of watercolour when completing his book week art.

Sam-Aleisha for adventuring into the book week theme and creating a pirates map.

Multicultural Expo

Tuesday in Week 10, 4/5T and 5/6H will be hosting a Multicultural Expo for you to come and explore. During this time we will share traditional clothing, food and games from various countries. We invite all students and parents to attend this expo in week 10. For more information come and see Miss Turnbull or Miss Hughes.
Social Skills

Every Thursday, at first break!

Social skills are the skills we use every day to interact and communicate with others. They include verbal and non-verbal communication, such as speech, gesture, facial expression and body language. A person has strong social skills if they have the knowledge of how to behave in social situations and understand both written and implied rules when communicating with others.

Why are social skills important?

Social skills are vital in enabling an individual to have and maintain positive interactions with others. Many of these skills are crucial in making and sustaining friendships. Social interactions do not always run smoothly and an individual needs to be able to implement appropriate strategies, such as conflict resolution when difficulties in interactions arise. It is also important for individuals to have ‘empathy’ (i.e. being able to put yourself into someone else’s shoes and recognise their feelings) as it allows them to respond in an understanding and caring way to how others are feeling. We hope to touch on these skills giving students an alternative at lunchtime.
